5	No free nodeports in the 302XX range	Pavel Paroulek Venkata Harish Kajur	ON HOLD	2019-09-10	The aai-oom template forces all aai components to use 302XX port range, but it seems that this range is fully allocated OOM NodePort List (except 2 instances where the port allocation is striked through - not sure what that means). We should discuss how to enable aai components nodeport allocation in aai-oom or circumvent nodeport usage via HAproxy (as suggested by Venkata Harish Kajur). ~~AAI-2624~~ - Add graphgraph to haproxy configuration CLOSED

7	Helm Chart Common Templates	Venkata Harish Kajur	ON HOLD	2019-08-29	~~OOM-1936~~ - Helm Chart Generation CLOSED https://gerrit.onap.org/r/c/oom/+/91553 https://gerrit.onap.org/r/c/aai/oom/+/91550 Use of common templates in the helm charts and have it driven from the values.yaml since all the helm charts are identical except the following things such as volumes, volume mounts, ConfigMap and secrets. The goal is to extract all that information in the values.yaml file and use common templates to enable more consistency. In each of the individual helm charts, we have a filebeat sidecar container, when creating a new helm chart, they just have to say if their chart should enable it or not in the values.yaml.
