

Reacting, Responding and Healing

Today the ONAP community was assaulted by racist outsiders spewing their hatred. This page is a place for the community to share how this impacted them and work together towards unity, diversity and inclusion.

Kenny Paul After ending the call and sending a hastily composed apology email I sat on the floor and cried for about 10 minutes, then I went and threw up. There is no place for this kind of evil in my life and I cherish what this global community represents and the importance of what we are all doing to tear down the artificial barriers between geographies and governments and work for the common good of all.